One Organization. OneTeam.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Team Builders Plus forms strategic alliances with HR Solutions.

Cherry Hill, NJ – Team Builders Plus, a Cherry Hill based training & development firm has entered into strategic alliances with Northfield-based HR Solutions. According to Team Builders Plus President Jeffrey Backal, "this alliance will enable organizations to outsource all of their human resource functions to a single entity, including; payroll, benefits, staffing, training, 360-degree feedback and organizational assessments. We have been an internationally recognized leader in Training & Development industry and now we can bring other needed services to our loyal client base."

Jay Zimmer, President of HR Solutions, believes his clients will greatly benefit from the training and consulting services of Team Builders Plus. By simply being able to conduct web-based Organizational Climate Surveys through Team Builders Plus, Zimmer's clients will be able to determine the areas of needed development in a very short period of time. The goal of this alliance is to allow companies to focus on their business without having to focus on the Human Resource related issues
