FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Consultant Named SJ Magazine's "People to Watch."

February 2004 - Merrick Rosenberg, co-founder of Team Builders Plus, an internationally recognized training and development firm based in Cherry Hill, NJ was named in SJ Magazine as "People to Watch: Twenty Four in Two Thousand Four." In the January issue, the following was written about Merrick Rosenberg:

He co-founded Team Builders Plus, a local corporate training company in Cherry Hill in 1991. Team Builders Plus has grown to be one of the largest and fastest growing companies in the area. His four websites have won national awards for sales volume of training assessment tools. He has worked with companies such as Campbell Soup, Cendant Mortgage, Cigna, Commerce Bank, Hewlett-Packard, Merrill Lynch, Johnson & Johnson, US Air Force, and USDA Forrest Service. Merrick is a third degree black belt and has been teaching martial arts with his wife, Traci, at the Jewish Community Center in Cherry Hill since 1992. He teaches more than 40 students the ancient martial art of Wado Ryu. His class is grounded in the spiritual aspects of self-development and overcoming self-imposed limitations. He also offers periodic self-defense classes for women. In one or another, you will continue to see Merrick making an impact on South Jersey.
