FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FREE SEMINAR FOR SMALL BIZ OWNERS AND EXECS AT ALL LEVELS ON HOW TO USE COACHING FOR CAREER AND BIZ GROWTH

Cherry Hill, NJ—June, 2006—Formerly only available to high paid executives, business coaches are now helping personnel at every staffing level to work through interpersonal and organizational challenges, and achieve more from their jobs and lives. On Wednesday evening, June 7 from 6:30pm-8:30pm at the Enterprise Center of Burlington County Community College in Mt Laurel, NJ, Team Builders Plus, a global, Cherry Hill-based team-building and leadership development organization, with more than a quarter of the Fortune 100 companies as its clients, will hold a free session exploring the process of effective coaching to reach the next career level for employees, or the next growth move, for small business owners. The informative session will help attendees answer these questions:

- Who uses coaches?
- Is a coach right for you?
- What can you expect from a coach?
- How does the coaching process work?

Conducted by Ken Blackwell, senior consultant, coach and facilitator for Team Builders Plus, Ken has spent 12 years training and coaching individuals worldwide at all levels, from frontline to executive suite managers, on effective leadership and goal setting to achieve positive results in the workplace. Register for this free seminar by calling 856-596-4196.
