Andrew Cohen Joins Team Builders Plus as Director of Team Development

Cherry Hill, NJ – June, 2007 – Team Builders Plus in Cherry Hill, a global team and leadership development firm, hired Andrew Cohen as its new Director of Team Development. In this capacity, Cohen will focus on sales and business development of team building programs.

According to Team Builders Plus President Jeff Backal, “Andrew is a perfect fit for our growing team. His sales, management, and team building experience will add tremendous value to our organization.”

Before joining Team Builders Plus, Cohen was Branch Manager for Manpower, where he managed offices in Cherry Hill and Vineland, NJ. During that time, Cohen increased revenue and exceeded budget goals by developing new client business and successfully placing candidates in a variety of positions. Prior, he spent five years with the Walt Disney World Company in Orlando, FL where he honed his training and team development skills by designing and implementing employee recognition programs and team building events.

Cohen earned his BA degree in Humanities at the University of South Florida. He was an active member of a Walt Disney World Diversity Resource Group and has volunteered over 350 hours of service at Martin Memorial Medical Center in Florida.

Cohen resides in Pitman, NJ.
